

'Deanwater Conference'

The Deanwater Hotel offers a unique setting coupled with over 40 years experience from a dedicated team that are here to assist you every step of the way, from initial enquires to the day of your conference itself. Our attention to detail is paramount and we pride ourselves in ensuring your conference runs smoothly for both you and your delegates.

Tariff 2017

Set in the finest Cheshire countryside yet within minutes of the major motorway networks and Manchester International Airport, the Deanwater is ideally situated for conferences, meetings, exhibitions & seminars. Whatever your requirements the Deanwater has a highly experienced conference team able to guide you and tailor your booking combining privacy, ease of access and size of meeting to the wide choice of available rooms and suites we have on offer.

Our Conference Rooms and Suites

We have several large suites and smaller rooms at The Deanwater that can accommodate various capacities in certain layouts – anything from a meeting for 2 up to a conference for 250. There are many options and our team would be more than happy to discuss your own specific requirements for the number of delegates you anticipate. All conference suites benefit from natural daylight, direct dial telephones and internet access.
